Ways to Keep in Touch

I asked my thirty two classmates about the ways they talk to their friends. The top 3 answers were through e-mail, letter and by phone.

Twenty of my classmates prefer e-mails to the other ways. They think they can send, read and respond to e-mails when it is convenient for them.

Twelve of my classmates like letters the best, because they feel letters are more personal than e-mails. They write letters only to their best and closest friends. Letters often take longer time to write than the others, but they think they're worth the effort.
