It is expensive to own a dog and you know why? A tiny dog could cause serious damage to your car just like what happened to a man in Maine. Left alone in his car, his tiny dog accidentally drove his car into a lake while he was talking to another dog owner. Apparently, he left his small dog in the car because he feared that his little dog would be hurt by a bigger dog in the park. Luckily, a family friend jumped into the water to rescue the small dog. A towing company pulled the car out of the water.

1. What did a man's dog in Maine accidentally do?

2. What was the man doing while his dog was alone inside his car?

3. Why did the man leave his dog inside his car?

4. How was the dog rescued?
