Hunting is indeed a dangerous sport. Why? A woman from Indiana had a peculiar hunting accident. On a waterfowl hunt, this woman was positioning herself for a clearer shot when her dog accidentally stepped on her gun and shot her in her foot. Officials in Indiana remind hunters to always take precautions when hunting. All hunters are advised to take a hunter education course before going out into the field. Sadly, the woman involved in the accident did not complete hers. On a lighter note, she did not sustain any life-threatening injuries.

1. What kind of accident did a woman from Indiana have?
2. What was the woman doing when she had the accident?
3. What reminder did officials in Indiana give to hunters?
4. What are all hunters advised to take before going out into the field?
