A. Conversation Questions

1. What comes to your mind when you hear the words 'social networking'?

2. How many hours a day do you spend on the internet?

3. Do you have accounts on social networking sites such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Tinder?

4. If you do, how often do you visit and check these sites? If you don't, why?

5. What made you interested in these sites?

6. What is your favorite social networking site? Why?

7. What are the good points about social networking sites?
Social Networking

8. What for you could be the bad points of these social networking sites?

9. In your own opinion, what type of information is/are inappropriate to post on social networks?

10. What was the greatest impact social networking has done in our lives?

B. Comment on the following quotes

1. "Kids should speak to each other. They're horrid to each other online, they bully each other - they should shut up and stop it. The problem with social media is there is too much freedom. It's too much, too young." - Cara Delevingne

2. "Technology and social media have brought power back to the people." - Mark McKinnon

3. “There is no reason, no practical reason for newspapers to survive.” - J acek Utko, TED Talks speaker

4. “Social media is not the answer to every problem, but it is undoubtedly a useful and powerful advance in learning.” - Unknown

5. “Don't say anything online that you wouldn't want plastered on a billboard with your face on it.” - Erin Bury (Sprouter community manager)

6. "It's important for people to talk and get beyond the wall of Facebook and social media." - Billy Corgan

7. "The most obvious drawback of social media is that they are aggressive distractions." - Bill Keller

8. “Social Networking should never replace face-to-face time.” - Germany Kent

9. "Social media presents an opportunity for business people to connect and know each other prior to a phone call or email taking place." - Jeffrey Gitomer

10. "The leverage and influence social media gives citizens are rapidly spreading into the business world."