Talk about the best food you have ever eaten.
I: Interviewer    K: Kimie-san

I: Why did you begin to perform rakugo in English?
K: When I lived in the United States, many people said, “I’ve never heard a Japanese joke. Could you tell me one?” They thought the Japanese never laughed. I wanted to share Japanese humor with people from all over the world.
I: How long have you performed rakugo in English?
K: For about twenty years. I’ve been to many countries for rakugo shows. These tours have been very exciting.
I: Have you ever had problems on these tours?
K: Yes. I’ve had a few. Some Japanese habits are different from other cultures’. Sometimes I have to explain Japanese habits, then everyone enjoys the show.
I: What’s your next plan?
K: To continue spreading laughter all over the world.
I: Thank you for your time. I’ve enjoyed talking with you.
