Steve: OK, let's compare these two data. One shows the tendency of our users' activity in the web site, and the other is the one of the competitor, Lavases Inc. Please look at the column A. The activity is almost same between them. But, in the column B, you can find that more and more users of the Lvases checked the information than ours. I think this is a big problem of our web site and should be solved as soon as possible...

B. Today's point (今日のポイント)

Check those points with your tutor.

Comparison is very useful to provide information clearly. Use such words as "between" and "among" to clarify what contents you compare.

C. Natural Conversation (会話練習)

Read the following sentences with your tutor keeping today's points in mind.

Today's pointに注意しながら、以下の文章を読みましょう。

Steve: To make the point clearer, I want to draw a comparison between these two data. These graphs both show user's activity on the web sites; one is ours and the other is of the competitor, Lavases Inc. First, please look at the column A. We found no difference between them. Both sites are used similarly in this point. In the column B, however, much more users could check the information of Lavases Inc. than in our site. I think this disparity is critical. This may be the reason why our website can't be fully made use of. I am hoping to solve it soon...

D. Practice (練習問題)
