Tips on Getting Your Dream Job

1. Know What You Really Want

You should know what you really want in a job. Identifying the factors that you consider the most important will help. What kind of job do you really want to do? How much is your expected salary? Do you want to travel while working? By answering these kinds of questions, you will be able to know your requirements of a good job.

2. Run To a Job (Never Run From a Job)

Find a role that inspires and excites you--something that will motivate you to be always at the top of your game. In doing this, you should be open to various opportunities that come your way.

3. Build your Network

Start finding the right place that will allow you to know more people and expand your network. By doing this, more opportunities will knock at your door. After all, It's about finding a role at the right place with the right people.

4. Act 'as if'

Set your mind 'as if you already have the job'. You may also list down the pros and cons to weigh things more accurately. If you're enjoying it, then it's a good sign. If not, then it's best to think twice.

5. Take your time

Though you have to take into consideration the advice of others, it's still you who will decide at the end of the day. Take your time and anticipate the greater things to come.
