

Social Networking Sites

These days, many people are active in social networking sites such as Facebook, Instagram and Twitter. Teenagers, young professionals, parents and even grandparents actively participate in discussions and interact with a lot of people from different parts of the world through various social networking sites. Because of this, many companies have started using social networking sites for business purposes. They use various sites to promote their products and get closer to their customers.

You should begin with this sentence: One day, Lisa decided to play golf.
