

A.

Talk about the picture by answering the questions:

1. In this world where people have different points of view in many aspects of life, do you think we can avoid disagreements? Why or why not?
2. Are you the type of person who always wants to win an argument or are you the type of person who can agree to disagree? (agree to disagree=to respect another's view rather than force the person to agree with you)
3. What do you feel when someone disagrees with you?
4. What do you do when someone doesn't agree with what you believe in?
5. How do you think the world would be like if everyone agrees about everything?
6. Do you think the concept of 'agreeing to disagree' works? Why or why not?

7. For you, what may be the possible advantage/s of agreeing to disagree? Explain.

8. What about the possible disadvantage/s of agreeing to disagree? Explain.

9. What are some life principles you firmly and strongly believe in?

10. Do you agree that life would be boring if we all agreed all the time? Why or why not?

B.

Tell whether you agree or disagree with the following famous proverbs and explain why:

1. The love of money is the root of all evil.

2. The best things in life are free.

3. Personality is more important than beauty.

4. Winning is everything.

5. The end justifies the means.

6. To see is to believe.

7. No pain, no gain.

8. Time heals all wounds.

9. The early bird catches the worm.

10. Practice makes perfect.